Subjects gives notice of hearing. Signed, Senator Dworak, Chairman. Mr. President, your Committee on Committees reports....
No, that notice of committee hearing by the Committee on Committees. Signed, Senator Savage. That is all, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Introduction of bills. Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Mr. President, members of the Legislature.
We just met with the chairmen. We have noted that we have no bills on General File, for which reason there will be no work to do tomorrow. There is no reason to waste a legislative day by just coming in here and rapping the gavel and going home. So your Speaker has recommended that when we adjourn today that we adjourn until Monday. What we do next week is fully going to depend on how many bills are generated out of your committees today. We have checked with the chairmen and several bills can be placed on General File today, but they may not be able to get here this morning, so when we're finished with our business this morning I am going to move that we recess till 4 p.m. this afternoon, at which time we will receive the reports from the committee chairmen as to these bills to be placed on General File. This will give us something to do Monday. So that will be the schedule. We will
